Stanford Memorial Church
A Time to Remember

It is only fitting that, as Jane and Leland Stanford paid tribute to their son, Leland, Jr., by conceptualizing and building Stanford University, we return to Stanford Memorial Church, a place of peace and beauty, to remember those we appreciated and loved during our days here. By remembering them on this day, we honor their memory and keep them in our hearts.

From our very first days on campus, through our early days as graduates and into the later years of our lives, we grew close and kept each other company through the challenges and joys, the triumphs and the tragedies, the anxieties and excitement. For these reasons, we so dearly miss our fellow Stanford companions who are no longer with us.

May each one be remembered “from the foothills to the bay.”

HYMN
Come Build With Us a House of Prayer

1. Come build with us a house of prayer:
bring joy, bring grief, bring praise.
Bring every passion, need and care
we human beings raise:
our thirst for faith, our questioning,
our wordless, yearning sighs,
the hymns and anthems that we sing
for all that God supplies.

2. Then let the temple of the heart find here in stone and steel a sign and symbol that impart
the wonder that we feel:
a thankfulness surpassing speech
at knowing we survive because God’s strong, attentive reach has kept this church alive.

3. Let all the light that fills this place
a greater light bestow,
the shining of an inward grace
that leads the heart to know:
each building built by human hands
in time to dust returns
but in God’s heart a temple stands that never falls or burns.

Text: Thomas Troeger
Tune: Ellacombe

PRAYER OF THE DAY
Responses of the people are in bold

Come into this place of peace and let its silence heal your spirit;
Come into this place of memory
and let its history warm your soul;
Come into this place of prophecy and power
and let its vision change your heart.
Amen.

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, “I will give it to your descendants”; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.’

Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigour had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ‘Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?’ He said to him, ‘“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.” On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.’

I know that this was Life, the track whereon with equal feet we fared; And then, as now, the day prepared The daily burden for the back.

But this it was that made me move As light as carrier-birds in air; I loved the weight I had to bear, Because it needed help of love:

Lord, Lord. No rest
for the wicked?
Most likely no
heating pads.

(Heat some gravy for the potatoes,
slice a little green pepper
into the pinto beans...)

Sometimes a body
just plain grieves.

Stand by me in this, my hour

SERMON  Remembering
The Rev. Professor Jane Shaw

ANTHEM  They Are At Rest  Edward Elgar
(1857 – 1934)

They are at rest. We may not stir the heav'n of their repose
By rude invoking voice, or prayer addresed in waywardness to those Who in the mountain grots of Eden lie, and hear the fourfold river as it murmurs by.

READING  In Memory of Alfred Hassler
by Thích Nhất Hạnh  Kim Bluitt, ‘92

This Body is not you.
You are life without boundaries.
You have never been born, you will never die.
We have always been glad together and will always be.
We see you now and hold your hand in ours.
My body is one body with all the species.
Alfred! Your true body is visible to us.
We see you smiling your wonderful smile.
Let us look at the magnolia flowers in Shadowcliff.

RITE OF REMEMBRANCE  The Rev. Dr. Joanne Sanders

You are sovereign;
clothed with goodness;
dressed in strength.

And so the world is firmly established and it cannot be moved.
You, addressed by the world's voice are firmly established from the first and before and after the first.

The rivers have been lifted.
The rivers' cries, the rivers' shouts have been lifted.
The rivers have lifted their dark waves.

But more than the thunder of the waters,
more than the thumping of the seas is you.

Your witness is steadfast.
Your house is ever whole.

Even past the end of time.

Psalm 93, Norman Fischer, Opening to You; Zen-Inspired translation of the Psalm

CANDLE LIGHTING IN HONOR OF THE DECEASED ALUMNI

ANTHEM Domine Jesu Christe

Henry Ley (1887–1962)

Lord Jesus Christ, who created, redeemed, and preordained me to be this that I am, you know what you wish to do with me; do with me in accordance with your will, with mercy. Amen.

STANFORD HYMN

Where the rolling foothills rise
Up t'wards mountains higher,
Where at eve the Coast Range lies,
In the sunset fire,
Flushing deep and paling;
Here we raise our voices hailing
Thee, our Alma Mater.

Tender vistas ever new
Thru' the arches meet the eyes,
Where the red roofs rim the blue
Of the sun-steeped skies,
Fleck'd with cloudlets sailing,
Here we raise our voices hailing
Thee, our Alma Mater.

REFRAIN:

From the foothills to the bay,

It shall ring,

As we sing,

It shall ring and float away;

Hail, Stanford, Hail!

Hail, Stanford, Hail!

When the moonlight-bathed arcade
Stands in evening calms,
When the light wind half afraid
Whispers in the palms,
Far off swelling failing,
Student voices glad are hailing
Thee, our Alma Mater.
