THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING WORDS

Responses of the people are in bold.

This is the day that God has made;
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

May God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray:

Your steadfast love endures from age to age, O living One. Your Spirit speaks through your prophets, protecting your people from those who would lead them astray. Raise up new voices in our time to speak with justice and power and to challenge the complacency that would have us rest easily. Amen.
Please be seated.

CLOSING VOLUNTARY    Caprice sur les grands jeux
Clérambault
One Human Heart Can Hold

1. One human heart can hold
   a world too vast to chart.
   For time and space cannot enfold
   the reaches of the heart
   that span our hope and tears,
   the breadth and depth and height
   that separate our faith and fears,
   the shadows and the light.

2. O God, your heart alone
   can plumb and measure ours.
   The whole expanse is grasped and known
   by your discerning powers.
   you touch the wounds and scars
   where violence leaves its mark.
   you see our hopes as bright as stars
   that shine against the dark.

3. Although we cannot know
   as we are known by you,
   the visions of our hearts can grow
   to see all hearts anew.
   We dream how each appears
   in your unbounded sight:
   a universe of joys and tears,
   of sorrow and delight.

4. And through our dream we see
   The life that you intend:
   to honor the complexity
   of stranger, foe and friend,
   to welcome every heart
   and help each heart recall through worship, music, service, art
   your heart embraces all.

O Grant Us Light

O grant us light, that we may know
Wisdom that you alone can give,
That truth may guide us as we go,
And virtue bless the lives we live.

O grant us light, that we may find
Where error lurks in human lore.
And turn to you our seeking minds,
And love your holy Word the more.

O grant us light, that we may learn
How dead is life from you apart,
How sure is joy for all who turn
To you an undivided heart.

O grant us light, when soon or late,
All earthly scenes shall pass away,
In you to find the open gate,
To deathless home and endless day.

What Matters to Me and Why

M. Elizabeth Magill
Dean of Stanford Law School

Wednesday, November 15
12:00-1:00 pm
CIRCLE Common Room
Old Union, 3rd floor

The What Matters to Me and Why series encourages reflection within the Stanford community on matters of personal values, beliefs, and motivations in order to better understand the lives and inspirations of those who shape the University.

The second talk of this year's series features Mary Elizabeth Magill, the Richard E. Lang Professor of Law and Dean of Stanford Law School. Since 2012, she has served as the Law School's 13th dean. Before coming to Stanford she was on the faculty at the University of Virginia School of Law for 15 years, serving most recently as vice dean, the Joseph Weil Endowment Fund Professor of Law, and the Elizabeth D. and Richard A. Morrill Professor.

For her full biography, visit: religiouslife.stanford.edu/wmmw.

Upcoming What Matters to Me and Why:

February 7: Steven Denning, former Chairman of the Board of Trustees

March 7: Dereca Blackmon, Associate Dean and Director of the Diversity and First Generation Office

April 11: Parvaneh Dey, Associate Vice Provost of Student Affairs and Dean of Career Education

May 8: Michelle Elam, Olivier Nomellini Family University Fellow in Undergraduate Education and Martin Luther King Jr. Centennial Professor of English

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE EXTEND OUR GRATITUDE to our volunteers Sairus Patel (Reader), Amy Wang (Reader), Tia Rich (Usher), and Stefan Huber (Usher) for donating their time to assist during today’s worship service. Those wishing to assist in our worship service as readers, ushers, or Communion assistants, please email janvbaer@stanford.edu.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU to our Guest Preacher, Shaykh Yassir Chadley. Yassir is an associate professor at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley where he has taught Islamic and Sufi studies since 2003. He was the Imam (spiritual Leader) of Masjid Al Iman, a multi-ethnic mosque in Oakland from 1991-2016. Yassir is also a well-known Moroccan musician, composer and, who spreads the message of tolerance, peace and understanding among religions and peoples in his many lectures and performances all over the Bay Area.

Please join us after the service for a Talkback with Yassir in the Round Room. A light lunch and beverages will be served.

A WARM WELCOME to Sughra Ahmed, our new Associate Dean at the Office for Religious Life.

OFFERINGS TODAY by cash and check are in support of The Job Train and will be received at the main doors after today’s service. Please make checks payable to The Job Train. The Job Train is an accredited job-training school located in San Mateo County on the Menlo Park-East Palo Alto border. The Job Train’s free or low-cost job training, placement and counseling helps the Bay Area’s unemployed secure good jobs at livable wages. Since 1965, The Job Train has helped more than 55,000 people achieve success.

PLEASE NOTE Checks written to Stanford University will be considered gifts to Stanford Memorial Church to support the programs and events in this Church. These gifts will not be formally acknowledged in writing, unless your gift check is $250.00 or greater. Thank you for your thoughtfulness in giving.
