THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OPENING WORDS
  Responses of the people are in bold.

Blessed be God: Eternal Majesty, Incarnate Word and Abiding Spirit.

And blessed be God’s reign, now and forever. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray:

Welcoming God, you receive and bless all who come to you in humility. Show us our false pride, that we may turn from all conceit and arrogance and, caring for one another, may honor you to the glory of your name. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O God,
our light and our salvation;
to you be glory and praise for ever.

From the beginning you have created all things and all your works echo the silent music of your praise.
In the fullness of time you made us in your image,
the crown of all creation.

You give us breath and speech, that with angels and archangels and all the powers of heaven we may find a voice to sing your praise:
Schubert Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord

God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Holy sanana in the highest. Holy sanana in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Holy sanana in the highest. Holy sanana in the highest.
How wonderful the work of your hands, O Lord.
As a mother tenderly gathers her children,
you embraced a people as your own.
When they turned away and rebelled
your love remained steadfast.

From them you raised up Jesus our Saviour, born of Mary,
to be the living bread,
in whom all our hungers are satisfied.

He offered his life for sinners,
and with a love stronger than death
he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died,
he came to supper with his friends
and, taking bread, he gave you thanks.
He broke it and gave it to them, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine,
he gave you thanks, and said:
Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Gracious God we offer you these gifts and the hearts of your people joined in praise and thanksgiving in the name of Jesus Christ.
Send your Holy Spirit on us and on this bread and this wine, that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ, and that, sharing your life, we may travel in your company to our journey's end.

With all your people, we give you thanks and praise through the Son and in the Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

As Christ has taught us, so we are bold to pray:

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ. We who are many are one body, because we all share in one bread. The gifts of God for the people of God.

DISTRIBUTION
All are welcome at God’s holy table, to receive the bread and wine in this church. Hold out your hands to receive the bread to eat. Please dip the bread in the cup of wine. The following words will be used when you are given the bread and wine, ‘The body of Christ, the bread of Heaven.’ and ‘The blood of Christ, the cup of Salvation’ to which the response, each time, is Amen.

If you would prefer simply to receive a blessing then please come forward to the communion assistants, and simply cross your arms across your chest.

Gluten free wafers are available. Please request one when you come forward for Communion.

AGNUS DEI  Missa Brevis in F  Lotti
PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal God,
you have graciously accepted us as living members
of your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Jesus Christ, Amen.

What Matters to Me and Why

David Kelley
Professor, Mechanical Engineering

Wednesday, October 11
12:00-1:00 pm
CIRCLE Common Room

The What Matters to Me and Why series encourages reflection within the Stanford community on matters of personal values, beliefs, and motivations in order to better understand the lives and inspirations of those who shape the University.

The first talk of this year's series features David Kelley. As Stanford’s Donald W. Whittier Professor in Mechanical Engineering, Kelley is the Academic Director of both the degree-granting undergraduate and graduate programs in design within the School of Engineering, and has been a professor in the program for more than 35 years. He is a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University and earned his master's degree from Stanford University in Engineering/Product Design. Professor Kelley is the founder and chairman of the global design and innovation company, IDEO. He also founded Stanford’s Hasso Plattner Institute of Design, known as the d.school.

For his full biography, visit: religiouslife.stanford.edu/wmmw.
